

BIG MUSIC HALL JAMMED TO HEAR OHIO'S GOVERNOR

Wonderful Demonstration in Home City of Cincinnati, to State's Favorite Son

BLIND ORATOR FROM OKLAHOMA WARMLY GREETED

Gov. Harmon Pays His Respects to Harding in Sarcastic Speech Proving to Vast Audience That Republican Candidate is Not a Stickler for the Truth.

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—There have been great demonstrations of popular acclaim for public favorites in Music Hall, but that of last night in honor of Governor Judson Harmon was the peer of any of them. It was the chief executive's farewell meeting of the campaign in Cincinnati, and he must have taken away with him a feeling of complete satisfaction.

The spacious auditorium was literally packed from floor to roof with cheering, laughing and at times almost hysterical throng of enthusiastic supporters. It became necessary for the police, in order to prevent a crush, to suspend the enforcement of the law relating to permitting people to stand in the open spaces. Even this did not suffice, and the doors were opened on all sides to give those on the outside the desired opportunity of hearing the addresses of the governor and of United States Senator Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma.

To the governor there was paid almost a remarkable tribute: the vast audience cheering him for minutes at a time and hailing his appearance with an avalanche of sound that seemed to make the solid walls rock with the concussion. Thorough sympathy with his arguments was exhibited and encouragement him to go on with his speech.

His address was devoted principally to a reply to Warren G. Harding, the Republican nominee for governor to whose charges he applied the short and ugly word, especially as they related to the allegation that as receiver of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad he had permitted the evasion of taxes. But his principal answer was to the declaration of Mr. Harding in his speech last Tuesday in the same hall in discussion of Cincinnati's affairs that he believed in home rule.

His response was the recalling of the fact that Mr. Harding had, while a member of the Ohio senate, supported a ripper bill to root out an elective board of city affairs for this city and to substitute therefor a board to be appointed by the governor. In the debate, the governor showed, Mr. Harding had objected to the unfairness of the measure, but had voted against an amendment to make the board elective, and the ground that it was a party measure. Following this action, he had voted to pass the bill in its original form.

With intense sarcasm Governor Harmon then asked if Mr. Harding then yielded his confessed sense of right and justice to Cox's will, when there was no personal obligation, what could be expected of him if elected governor on the nomination of Cox? Harding he asserted, has the notion that because the city is Cox's home, boss rule is home rule. As the speaker uttered this rejoinder, quoting the number of the senate bill and reciting the unavailing fight made against it by former Senator Alfred Cohen of this city, the crowd fairly rose and sent out salvo after salvo of applause.

To his hearers Governor Harmon brought a message of confident hope of victory next Tuesday, asserting that if Hamilton county again desired to lead the procession behind his banner it would have to bestir itself in order to outdo some of the great centers of population up the state.

Quite as warm a greeting was tendered to his associate on the platform—Senator Gore—who told the gathering of the Democratic onrush throughout the nation everywhere. Because of the early leaving of his train for Toledo, the governor made but a short address and left the audience to his colleague of the night.

to Music Hall by the Duckworth Club led by Dr. Thomas P. Hart.

When the meeting place was reached, it was found that the seats had all been taken. The governor and his party were whisked around to the rear entrance and given seats on the stage in order to review the entrance of the Duckworth, the Fifth Ward and the Harmon First Voters' Clubs, which passed through the crowds with banners flying and drums beating. It was fully a quarter of an hour before order was restored and the opportunity given to Simeon W. Johnson, the presiding officer of the night, to formally open the function. His was a happy introduction of the governor when he announced him as the "man from home," back again among his friends and neighbors.

"The fight in 1910," said Mr. Johnson, "is almost over. Our campaign committee, under the magnificent leadership of John W. Peck, has closed its labors. Our cause will on Tuesday next be submitted for decision to the voters of Ohio. May the right prevail. One year ago in our municipal campaign we had a most worthy standard-bearer. His honesty, courage and ability, and the great cause for which he stood should have commanded success, but we did not succeed. Was it then true of this city what Delos F. Wilcox wrote about it in his book, 'Great Cities of America'? Under the head of 'Reputation of American Cities,' he has this to say concerning Cincinnati: 'Cincinnati stands for cynical, civic degradation,' and with these words Mr. Wilcox dismisses Cincinnati, no further mention being made of our city. My friends, it never was true of Cincinnati that it stood for cynical civic degradation, and it never will be true. That statement comes from a cynic himself, and a superficial observer. The civic conscience of Cincinnati never died. It may have slumbered, but it has now been awakened. The presence of this great audience proves it. Here, as well as all over the country, 'bossism' is surely doomed.

"We have this year in Hamilton county a splendid ticket. It deserves to win. Let us elect each and every candidate on the Democratic ticket. Thousands of Republicans are with us in this struggle. They come with clean hands and clear consciences, with earnest, honest purposes, and without their aid we cannot hope to succeed. In the contest for the governorship there are no national issues, Judson Harmon is running for governor of Ohio and for nothing else. The future will take care of itself. He would rather be right than president of the United States. He would rather have the endorsement of the people through re-election to the governorship than be president of the United States without it. He has served no special interests, for he has listened to no master's voice. What shame and folly is theirs who have borne false witness here against him, to those who love him, who know him so well. Judson Harmon, although governor of Ohio, and her greatest son today is with us tonight, as the man from home. Home among his friends and neighbors. To them he needs neither introduction nor presentation."

The demonstrations which greeted the governor were, in the nature of their volume and evident sincerity, revelations. Not even at the mammoth meeting at York and Freeman a few weeks ago, where Harmon spoke before, did the demonstrations approach in enthusiasm those of last night. It was nothing short of remarkable. Men waved their hats and shouted and screamed and applauded and women in hysterical enthusiasm went hoarse crying out their buzzes for Harmon and Democracy.

The governor was at his best. His voice was good, his humor and satire were sparkling, his points were trenchant, but driven home with the skill of the masterful orator and statesman. In 15 brief minutes Governor Harmon covered the chief issue of the campaign. As the governor arose to speak after Chairman Johnson's introduction, the audience went wildly enthusiastic and it was some minutes before the governor could speak. He said in part:

"I bring you a message from the city on the lakes and every part of Ohio, and that is that if Hamilton county expects to lead the procession for good government this year as she did two years ago, she will have to be up and stirring. For the conscience of the people is aroused, and with a questions of public morals or good government."

HEIRESS ELOPES WITH CHAUFFEUR

New York, Nov. 5.—No trace has yet been found of Miss Maud Blaisdell, the 17-year-old daughter of Millionaire Jos. W. Blaisdell of Brooklyn, who yesterday offered a reward of $1,000 for information as to her whereabouts. The offer of the reward brought to light the fact that the girl has been missing five months.

At the same time it became known that John Havens, for eight years chauffeur for the Blaisdell family, and a married man, has disappeared. Havens drove the auto when Miss Blaisdell disappeared. She carried a suit case, telling her parents she expected to spend the night with friends. When she failed to re-appear, her room was searched and a note found, in which she had written, "I have gone to Liverpool with Jack. I hope everything will be forgiven."

Since that time no trace has been found of either the heiress or the chauffeur.

ELECTIONS

Will Be Held All Over the Country Next Tuesday, 23 States to Elect Governors.

New York, Nov. 5.—Next Tuesday members of the Sixty-second congress will be elected in every state in the union except Maine and Vermont. These two states, with Georgia and Arkansas, have already held elections, but in the two southern states only state officials were chosen, and the congressional candidates remain to be passed on by the people. Twenty-five states choose complete tickets, from governor down. Thirty U. S. senators' terms expire next March and of these, elections have been held in the legislatures of Alabama, Maryland and Vermont. Maine has chosen a Democratic legislature, thus insuring a Democratic successor to Senator Hale.

GOV. HARMON'S ELECTION IS CLAIMED BY BIG PLURALITY

Columbus, Nov. 5.—The Democratic state committee today issued a statement claiming Harmon's election by the largest majority ever given a Democratic candidate in this state. They claim this prediction is based on figures compiled by careful students of politics in both great parties. It is claimed that while Harmon will run far ahead of the ticket he will carry the ticket to victory with him.

CAN ROOSEVELT TELL WHY HE SAVED PAUL MORTON WHEN CAUGHT BY JUDSON HARMON?

Columbus, Nov. 5.—Anticipating that Colonel Roosevelt, upon his advent in Ohio, will attack Governor Harmon and charge him with being a reactionary attorney, Thomas E. Powell of this city sent this self-explanatory telegram to Roosevelt at Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday: "Governor Judson Harmon is the same Judson Harmon who, as special counsel, traced the crime of rebating to Paul Morton, resigning when you refused to proceed against this member of your cabinet."

UNABLE TO GIVE BAIL MEAD WILL OCCUPY A CELL

Marietta, Nov. 5.—C. Albert Mead, the oil company promoter arrested last week for fraudulent use of the mails, was arraigned before Commissioner Leeper here Friday morning. He waived preliminary hearing and was held to the federal grand jury in the sum of $1,500. He was unable to furnish bond and was committed to the Washington county jail.

INSANE MAN

Gives Philadelphia Director of Safety a Bad Scare by Firing Blank Cartridges.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5.—Harry Clark, aged 55, a demented man, created much excitement in the City Hall last evening when he drew a baby hammerless revolver of the smallest caliber and fired two shots at Director of Public Safety Clay. Attaches of the director's office believing their chief had been shot, rushed upon the man and overpowered him. A hurried examination revealed the fact that the tiny weapon contained blank cartridges, and that the director had escaped with a case of fright.

Rumors of the attempted assassination spread throughout the city and it was some time before his friends were assured that the shooting was more of a joke than a tragedy.

Clark, who lives in the same ward with the director, had called to ask permission to sell a novelty on the streets. Mr. Clay told him to make application in the usual way. This seemed to excite the visitor and he drew a revolver and fired.

Clark was later sent to the Philadelphia hospital for the insane.

ROOSEVELT IS TOURING OHIO

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Wearied by his day of campaigning in Iowa, Roosevelt slipped into Chicago today and dodging any chance of meeting a crowd drove around in the morning air. He left for Toledo, O., after disappointing a crowd which gathered at the depot to see him. From Toledo he goes to Cleveland by special train, making rear platform speeches at many towns enroute. At Cleveland he will close his Ohio campaign with a big meeting tonight.

CAMPAIGN

In Indiana Will Close Tonight With Big Rally Meetings at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Senator Beveridge closes the Republican campaign in this state tonight with a rally which will be preceded by a monster parade. An enormous crowd is expected. He is expected to summarize all his speeches and make tonight's address a concise statement of his political stand. At the same time, Kern, his Democratic opponent, will be making four street speeches about the city.

The Democrats changed their plans at the last minute and brought Kern here to close their campaign.

FRIEND OF GREELEY DIES. Springfield, Nov. 5.—George H. Frey, a veteran editor, financier, personal friend of Horace Greeley and one of the founders of the Republican party, died here yesterday.

BURGLAR ROBS SLOT MACHINES IN MUSIC HALL

About $30 in nickles was secured by a burglar who broke into the Music Hall bowling alley Friday night and robbed the various slot machines. The machines were all more or less damaged and a roll top desk was broken into. Entrance to the place was gained through the yard in the rear of the Newark Hardware Co., and by removing a large pane of glass from an upper window sash.

The burglar, before he began operations, raised another window that opens into the ware room of the hardware company and secured a hammer and a screw driver. With these instruments he forced the locks of the picture machines and the piano and robbed the drawers. He then went into the private office of Edward Graef and forced the top of the desk, breaking the lock as he did so.

The cash register was tampered with but it was not opened or damaged in any way. The back door of the room was found open Saturday morning and the burglar doubtless left by the way of the alley. The police were notified and are investigating the robbery.

HAMMOND WILL REMAIN INDOORS

Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 5.—Though his family and physicians declare they feel no alarm over his condition, it was announced at the summer home of John Hays Hammond here today that the millionaire mining expert would remain quietly indoors for several weeks yet, getting the absolute rest his physicians prescribed. He is allowed to transact very little business and to see only a very few friends. There is nothing acute in his condition, overwork being the complaint.

BATTLE IS OVER

And Democrats Victorious, Says Foss—Ames After Senator Lodge.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 5.—That the battle is over and victory in the hands of the Democrats was the assertion with which Representative Eugene N. Foss, the Democratic candidate for governor greeted his audience in a rally here last night.

He declared that not only was his party sure of electing the head of the ticket, but that they would elect a Democratic legislature and a majority of the congressional candidates. At Lowell, Mass., in an open letter to United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Congressman Butler Ames, of Lowell, called upon the senator to pledge himself not to be a candidate for re-election in the interest of the Republican state ticket.

WHAT IS IT?

What precious stone? Answer to Friday's puzzle—Saxony.

ANOTHER SCANDAL IN LORIMER CASE

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Charles E. Erbstein, one of the attorneys for Lee O'Neil Browne, who was recently acquitted of a charge of bribing State Representative Charles A. White to vote for William Lorimer for United States senator, has been indicted, charged with corrupting a member of the jury which cleared Browne. The juror in question, Grant McCutcheon, and Henry T. Stacy, alleged go-between, according to their stories told to State Attorney Wayman, received $250, which they divided equally for McCutcheon's vote on the verdict. The first trial of Browne resulted in a disagreement, the second, in which the bribing of the juror is alleged to have figured, in a verdict of not guilty. Among the witnesses for the state were three state representatives, who asserted on the stand that they had received $1,000 each for their votes for Lorimer.

VICTORY PREDICTED FOR THE TICKET

The Democratic County Central and Executive committees held a largely attended meeting in the rooms of the Licking County Democratic Club Saturday afternoon, at which good reports were received from every part of the county, indicating that the entire Democratic ticket will be elected by one of the largest majorities ever received in the county.

TWO BIG WAGERS

On Dix, $30,000 Against $10,000 Are Made By Stock Exchange.

New York, Nov. 5.—The prevailing odds in Wall Street in Dix's favor are 3 to 1. At these figures the largest bet of the campaign was made by two stock exchange houses acting for clients, $30,000 being laid against $10,000 that Dix will win.

Besides this wager others looked small. There were a few $1,000 to $300, two of $250 to $1,000, and $10,000 offered at these figures was unplaced at the close of business.

Generally those backing the candidate of Mr. Roosevelt were asking and insisting on 3 to 1, though a few were willing to take 10 to 4.

BOTH PARTIES CLAIM NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 5.—Final claims regarding the result of the election were made by the campaign managers in this state today. The Democrats claim the state for Dix by 100,000 to 150,000 with Dix running ahead of the ticket. The Republicans claim Stimson will win by about 100,000 and run behind his ticket.

KNOX REMUSED TO ANSWER

Cincinnati, Nov. 5.—Secretary Knox refused to forecast anything he might say at his meeting here tonight. Asked "Do you agree with Senator Gore in saying he would take Taft's word as to Cox's character?" he refused to answer.

SENTENCED TO SERVE 99 YEARS

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 5.—Sergeant J. O. Manley, a National Guardsman, who killed Louis Ruchenstein by plunging a bayonet through his body Oct. 23, 1909, when President Taft was in Dallas, was convicted of murder and sentenced to 99 years imprisonment by a jury today.

WANT RATES REDUCED. Washington, Nov. 5.—Various operators of grain elevators in Indiana and Illinois today petitioned the interstate commerce commission to apply reasonable local rates to Chicago, where goods must be reloaded and pulled to other destinations.

FALLS DEAD SELLING COW. Zanesville, Nov. 5.—While showing a cow, which he was trying to sell to a neighbor, George Dickerson, aged 75, a farmer of near Renckon, Morgan county, dropped dead from apoplexy.

CRIPPEN TO DIE ON GALLOWS

Court of Criminal Appeal Refuses American a New Trial

WILL DIE NEXT TUESDAY

Last Appeal Will Be Made to Home Secretary to Commute Sentence.

London, Nov. 5.—Dr. H. H. Crippen, the American doctor who murdered his wife, Bell Elmore, the music hall singer, must die on the gallows.

The court of criminal appeal, consisting of Justices Darling, Channell, and Pickford, after hearing the arguments of Crippen's attorneys and the crown representatives this afternoon, decided that there was no ground for a new trial.

Crippen heard his fate calmly though his usually ruddy face was white as chalk and his twitching lips showed the suppressed emotion he was undergoing. It is altogether probable that Crippen will be executed next Tuesday unless the home secretary intercedes which is considered most unlikely.

Crippen's face, usually ruddy, was ghastly pale. He seemed dazed, soon pulled himself together and walked steadily to the seat that had been assigned to him and immediately began conferring with his attorneys over the lines of the arguments to be used in the plea for a new trial.

Before the court opened, it was the general conviction that there was little or no chance that the higher court would order a new trial. Up to the time the new court of appeals was established, which was only recently, the only appeal from a conviction was to the Home Secretary and few were granted. It was declared that unless it could be shown clearly that glaring errors had been made in the trial, there was little hope that Crippen would escape the gallows.

Next Tuesday is the day set for the execution and there was a chance that the court would decide the case in time to allow the execution at that time.

Barrister Tobin set up as the first reason for the new trial that the jurors had not been properly isolated by the court during the trial and that it would have been possible for outsiders to communicate with them. This plea was overruled by the justices. Tobin further contended that the prosecution had introduced important evidence at an improper time during the trial and by so doing had deprived the defense of the right to rebut much testimony.

The defendant's barrister then took up the question of the remains found in the Crippen home, declaring that the body had not been sufficiently identified as that of Mrs. Crippen, and that until this identification was made positive, the jury was in error in returning a verdict of guilty. He contended also that even if identification had been made positive, there was no proof that murder had been committed, but even granting that murder had been committed, he said, there was no proof that Dr. Crippen was the murderer.

Crippen's attorneys announced that the next step would be to ask the home office either to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment or to grant a pardon to the prisoner. It is considered most unlikely, however, that any power will now intervene to save the prisoner.

Crippen had evidently expected the dismissal of his appeal and had accepted himself to receive the verdict. When it was announced that no new trial would be granted, Crippen stood upright and uttered no sound, but the expression of abject despair on his face as he was escorted from the court room showed that he had resigned himself to his fate. Under a strong guard, Crippen was placed in a prison van and driven at once back to jail. During the ride he sat with his head between his hands uttering not a sound.

LOST FORTUNE AND SUICIDED

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Failing to recoup a lost fortune of $20,000, Chas. E. Eager of Columbus, O., swallowed carbolic acid and was found dead in a boarding house here today. A wife and child at Columbus survive him.

SOCIETY

Little Miss Frances Krebs entertained Thursday evening at her home in Linden avenue with a five o'clock dinner in honor of her seventh birthday anniversary. There were as many guests seated at the round tables in the dining room as the little hostess is years old, and they greatly enjoyed the dainty repast and flowing out the candles, which illuminated the birthday cake.

Those present were Mary Holmboe, Charlotte Hoop, Marie Dadds, Mildred Hare, Harry Holmboe, George Alfred Krebs Jr., and Frances Krebs. The guests departed wishing Miss Frances more such happy events.

One of the enjoyable events of the season was a masquerade dance given Wednesday night by the Sorosis club. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour when prizes were awarded to the most complete and funniest costumes. Miss Helen Morrison received the prize, having the most complete, and Mr. George Glauminger having the funniest costume.

One of the enjoyable events of the season was a hay ride and marshmallow toast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, six miles northwest of the city. After the toast all returned to the house where music and games were enjoyed until a late hour when a delicious repast was served.

The guests were: Misses Marie Ganderinger, Helen Morrison, Florence Huffman, Amelia Partridge, Lela Swartz, Olga Johnson, Phoebe Leck, Edna McCann, Dorothea Keck, Bessie Vining, Martha Moran and Miss Mary Bash of Granville. Messrs. Joe Sox, John Groves, Charles Dunn, Joe Francis, William Secrests, Harry Beutick, John Pieri, Langely Mulenix, Walter Kussmaul, Harry Nies, Charles Williams, and Lawrence Ganderinger. Mrs. J. W. Ganderinger chaperoned the merry crowd. All left at a late hour, voting Mr. and Mrs. Hoover royal entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ball entertained the members of the What-so-ever circle of The King's Daughters and their friends, in a very delightful manner at their home in Clinton street Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in listening to the world's most famous singers through the Victrola. Mr. Colwell had charge of the records and in his selections the guests enjoyed a rare treat. A silver coffee service was taken at the close for the circle. A nice little sum was realized.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was a party given in honor of Geneva Porter. Thursday evening at her home, on Johns street. The evening was very pleasant.

Little Miss Frances Krebs entertained Thursday evening at her home in Linden avenue with a five o'clock dinner in honor of her seventh birthday anniversary. There were as many guests seated at the round tables in the dining room as the little hostess is years old, and they greatly enjoyed the dainty repast and flowing out the candles, which illuminated the birthday cake.

Those present were Mary Holmboe, Charlotte Hoop, Marie Dadds, Mildred Hare, Harry Holmboe, George Alfred Krebs Jr., and Frances Krebs. The guests departed wishing Miss Frances more such happy events.

Mr. and Mrs. Orla Lewis were pleasantly surprised at their home on North Williams street Tuesday evening by a number of their neighbors and friends in honor of their third wedding anniversary. Music, singing and social conversation were the pleasures of the evening and a dainty repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis were presented with a handsome present as a remembrance of the occasion. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. O. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lambert and daughter, Edith May, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. B. Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. L. McNamara, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ginton and son Willie, Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hiler, Mrs. E. J. Lewis and grandson Clyde, Mrs. P. Lovell and daughters Myrtle and Pearl, Miss Effie Lewis, Mr. Arthur Lambert, Mrs. J. Simson, Mrs. J. Sijmme, Mrs. Devore and daughter Sylvia, Mrs. McCune and son Fernman, and Mrs. Van Voorhis. At a late hour all departed for their homes, reporting a fine time.

Miss Ema Spencer of this city is represented at the international exhibition of pictorial photography at the Albright art gallery in Buffalo, N. Y., this year. Five of her photographs are hung: "The Kittens Breakfast," "The Dandelion," "Feeding the Chickens," portrait of Mrs. L. B. Wing, and portrait of Mrs. Julia McCune Flory. The exhibition is the largest and most comprehensive exposition of art in photography ever held and it is a fine tribute to Miss Spencer's art to be so well represented. The acceptance of her works is for the distinctive note she has contributed to the evolution of pictorial photography.

Hetuck chapter D. A. R. was delightfully entertained Friday evening by Granville chapter D. A. R., and when the Newark party alighted from the car at Pearl street, Granville they were met by two ghosts, with lanterns, who solemnly led them to the home of Mrs. W. P. Ullrich.

man. The interior of the residence was elaborately decorated with fall leaves, a profusion of candles, and witches, cats, owls and other Halloween decorations.

The guests were cordially greeted and after an informal reception an entertaining musical program consisting of piano and vocal solos was rendered by a number of the students of the Conservatory of Music, Division university. Later all were ushered to the dining room where an appetizing repast was served, the dining table being artistically decorated with candles and lighted pumpkins.

The guests from Newark enjoying the hospitality of the Granville chapter were Mrs. F. M. B. Wadley, Mrs. Helen Franklin, Mrs. Clifford Sturgeon, Mrs. A. H. Rickert, Mrs. J. W. Leidigh, Mrs. L. B. East, Mrs. Ellen Perry, Mrs. Rose Wilson, Mrs. Chas. Homestead, Mrs. W. C. Wells, Misses Emma and Margaret Lisey, Mrs. John Sachs, Mrs. George Blood, Mrs. Samuel Sachs, Mrs. John Tucker, Mrs. Henry Woodbridge, Mrs. William Prout and Mrs. W. D. Fulton.

Eggs and Mushrooms (Chafing Dish)
—Peel and cut up with a silver knife one pint of mushrooms. Put in a shallow dish a pint of thick, light cream, season with salt, and add the mushrooms. Bake in a hot oven until tender.

Take a saucer and sauté gently in the oil. Lift the whites now and turn very carefully with a silver fork until they are set, then prick the yolks and let them mix with the other ingredients. Serve quite soft on toast.

Agretti—Cream together a half cupful of butter and a half cupful of sugar. Add a half cupful of chopped citron or cupful of currants, a half teaspoonful of mixed ground spice, one beaten egg, one cupful of flour sifted with a half teaspoonful of baking powder.

Roll out some puff paste a quarter of an inch thick, and cut in three-inch circles. Put on each a lump of the cake mixture, draw the dough together and twist to form a bag. Lay the top face out quite a little, brush with beaten egg and bake in a quick oven.

FAVORITE RECIPES OF NEWARK HOUSEKEEPERS.

Russian Cream—One and one-half quarts rich milk, 1 cup sugar, 1-2 box Cox's gelatine, 4 eggs, vanilla to taste. Dissolve gelatine in milk by letting it warm slowly, add sugar and yolks of eggs, let come to a boil stirring continually, remove from fire, add whites of eggs when almost cold, flavor and set to mold.

Salad Dressing—Three tablespoonfuls catsup, 1 tablespoonful horseradish, 5 tablespoonfuls oil, 1-2 teaspoonful salt, 1 teaspoonful Worcester's sauce, a dash of tobacco, whip it hard and pour over broad leaved endive, green peppers and celery cut in strips.

Preserved Pickles—Six large sour store pickles, not dill pickles, 2 cups granulated sugar, 5 cents worth each of the following spices, mustard seed, whole allspice, stick cinnamon. Slice pickles thin and place alternate layers of pickles, sugar and spices in Mason jar. Let stand thirty-six hours when they are ready for use.

Pop-overs—One cup sifted flour, 1-4 teaspoonful salt, 1 scant cup milk, 2 eggs. Put flour and salt in a bowl, stir in the milk gradually, so as to make a smooth batter. Carefully work out all lumps. Add eggs well beaten, and beat the batter for a few minutes with a Dover beater. Pour about two tablespoonfuls into each hot buttered muffin pan and bake from 20 to 40 minutes in a moderately hot oven. These may be served as dessert by pouring over any good pudding sauce.

HAD SALT-RHEUM FOR MANY YEARS
Doctors Failed to Cure Him—Goodhair Soap Did the Work in Three Days.

"For a long time I have suffered and been annoyed with a breaking out on the back of my hands, the doctors called it salt rheum. My hands were in such an awful condition that I was ashamed to have them seen, so if I did not have a pair of old gloves on I would keep my hands in my pockets to prevent undue attention. Consulted several doctors and tried a number of remedies without any good results. Mr. J. I. Bolton of this city gave me two little samples of Goodhair Soap, requesting me to try it. The first application of the lather of this wonderful Soap gave me benefit and in three days' time my hands were entirely well."

HEART and HOME TALKS by Barbara Boyd

Little Problems of The Home.

A Home-Drama of Self Improvement.

WHEN we were children, it used to be: "Let's play Indian," or, "Let's play bear," or "Let's play pirates." "Let's play" was most familiar and enticing expression.

But when we grow up, "Let's play" becomes a part of the dead languages. And yet if some of the things we undertake to do as grownups could be undertaken in the "Let's play" spirit, what better results we would accomplish and how much more enjoyment we would get out of the undertaking!

Many a married couple, for instance, could say "Let's Play a Home-Drama of Self-Improvement." It would accomplish the same purpose as nagging, or scolding, or twitting about unpleasant habits. But how much pleasanter it would be!

After marriage many a husband and wife starts in to reform the other. In fact, family life generally is looked upon by some as conferring the privilege of telling others of the family their faults. Things are said to each other by husbands and wives, brothers and sisters, that would never be said even to the most intimate friends. Relationship to some seems to confer the right to criticize.

Criticism is helpful. There's no doubt about that. Many a person has been told by some member of the family of a fault of which he was blissfully unconscious. He is really thankful to know it and he heads himself to the task of correcting it.

But the manner of telling of faults counts much. And here, if one could just get the spirit of "Let's play," it would be a good thing.

"Let's play," when one was a child, was always serious business. One was terribly in earnest about being a pirate, or an Indian, or a bear. But one was happy and jolly about it, and kindly to the pirates or Indians, or bears, of his band or tribe or family, as to speak.

And that really should be the spirit of this home criticism. It should not be spit out in anger, or given with acrimony, but with gentleness, love, even jollity. The single purpose of helping the other toward greater perfection should be so apparent that no offense could be taken.

A little home-drama of self-improvement might be played in many a family to the enjoyment and benefit of every member. It could be a real jolly performance, and yet at its conclusion the members of the family be quite different persons so far as speech, manners and dress were concerned from what they were before the curtain went up. And such a method would leave no hurt feelings in its wake.

YOUNG MOTHERS

is woman's safest reliance; it is a medicine for external use, composed of oils and other ingredients which assist nature in all necessary physical changes of the system. Its regular use before the coming of baby prepares the muscles and tendons for the unusual strain; aids in expanding the skin and flesh fibres, and strengthens all the membranes and tissues. Mother's Friend lessens the pain of labor, and hastens recovery. It is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers.

The greatest crisis in a woman's life is when first she becomes a mother. All the physical strength of her nature is demanded at such times, and it is necessary that her system be thoroughly prepared for the event, in order that her health be preserved for future years. Mother's Friend

WHY THIS PERSONAL ABUSE?

Why is Burke, the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, traveling about, making a personal abusive campaign against James W. Rutledge, the upright, square and competent Democratic candidate for this office?

Why is Cummins, the Republican candidate for Clerk of the Court, circulating false reports, made out of whole cloth, against popular, accommodating and highly competent Edward Larason, who fills the office with such splendid ability and integrity and is a candidate for a second term?

These are only samples of the boss methods of warfare—a campaign of personal abuse—that is being waged against all the candidates on the Democratic ticket.

Are such methods decent, honest politics? Will any fair-minded citizen claim they are?

VOTE AGAINST DICK.

An X under the emblem at the head of the ballot counts as a straight ticket. While there are two ways of voting a "mixed" ticket the safest and surest is to put an X mark to the left of every man for whom you wish to vote. Make no mistake.

Frank E. Slabaugh has been sheriff of Licking county only a few months but he has filled the position with much credit and he entered the office at a time when his duties were arduous. Mr. Slabaugh was appointed to fill a vacancy and was placed upon the county ticket by the Democratic committee in the regular way. He is alert, painstaking, honest, courageous. He is deserving of your hearty support.

Will any Republican paper in the state point out one sentence from any speech of Warren G. Harding that even made an admission that George B. Cox has been guilty of any dishonesty or corruption?

C. L. Riley has conducted the county auditor's office with ability and has done his work faithfully. Mr. Riley merits the second term to which he aspires.

Let No Graft Escape.

Attorney General Denman has stopped the canal graft probe until after the election, which is no surprise. He has done his level best to smother every damaging fact connected with the canal graft exposure. Not one of the damaging facts brought out was obtained by a question put to witnesses by Denman. Every fact gleaned that exposed the graft was gotten in response to questions pressed by Gov. Harmon's attorney or the expert making the investigation. But if the people vote right next Tuesday the probe will be pushed to the utmost and the grafters will not be permitted to escape.

The office of Prosecuting Attorney is too important a one to fill with a man without experience as a trial lawyer. At this time the county can afford to try to get a permanent one. Good business judgment should be used by the voters and this will mean the reelection of Paul B. Smythe.

Licking county Democrats can vote their choice next Tuesday and know that they have performed the duty of good citizens by voting for the best men for the offices. They have an excellent ticket, one of the best governors Ohio ever had to support, and splendid men seeking election to the other offices in the state, county and district.

James Redman, Frank Dodgeon and Peter Brubaker constitute the county infirmary board. These men have done their work well and should all three be re-elected next Tuesday.

Although he has been watched with the closest scrutiny by certain opponents and has had to undergo what no former sheriff of this county ever had to contend with, not a single flaw has been or can be picked in any of the official transactions of Sheriff Slabaugh. He well deserves a triumphant majority next Tuesday.

The reason W. D. Fulton's friends intend to vote for him for representative is because they know him. They know he is a man who has the courage to stand for principle. He had a host of friends in the beginning of his fight, but since the silly reference made to him in the A-T, new recruits are enlisting under his banner every day. W. D. Fulton will represent the people of Licking county. He will not be a stick. He will be of value to his constituents.

LICKING COUNTY'S POPULAR CLERK OF THE COURTS

The office of Clerk of the Courts is one of the most important offices that is to be filled in the county. The office requires a man to fill it in an efficient manner, one who is intimately acquainted with all the details of the office, and in this respect there is no one in the county better qualified and better equipped for the discharge of its onerous duties than is Edwin M. Larason, the present incumbent. In the selection of men for this most important office, the voters should consider the fact that Mr. Larason has discharged its duties for one term and that he has given complete satisfaction to lawyers and litigants and the entire people of the county. His record shows that he has made good in every particular. He has made one of the most popular county officials that ever had to do with any official business of the county, and has made hundreds of friends by his affable manner and accommodating services rendered. No one ever called on Ed. Larason for information regarding any matters in his office but that he found time to give him his attention. There is no doubt that he will be re-elected by a large majority, and he highly deserves the majority to be overwhelming. When you cast your ballot on next Tuesday, vote for Edwin M. Larason for Clerk of the Courts and you will have done a good act.

DOUBLE DEALING CAMPAIGN OF DEFAMATION

The Republican candidates that are attempting to ride into county offices by traducing Newark and the citizens of Newark by declaring that the city is made up and peopled by a crowd of thugs. Mr. Farmer, and residents of the townships and prosperous villages of Licking County, are not some of your family or relatives living in Newark?

How do you like to have these candidates go up and down the county telling your neighbor that your Newark relative is a thug?

We mistake the sentiment of the residents of Licking County if these Republican candidates do not receive a rebuke at the hands of Old Licking voters on next Tuesday. This rebuke will consist of the election of the whole Democratic ticket by majorities that will deter any one ever again making such an obnoxious campaign as is now being carried on by certain Republican candidates. Citizens of Newark is it true as they are saying, that Newark and Licking County needs them in office in order to make Newark a decent city?

Furthermore, voters of Newark, how do you like the audacity of these defamers of Newark citizens now peddling themselves around the city, begging the votes of these same citizens whom they have traduced all summer in their travels over the county?

THE GREAT BATTLE FOR HONESTY NEXT TUESDAY

Two days more and the campaign of 1910 will end. It ends with every indication that all over the country there will be heavy Democratic gains. There are two general reasons for this:—one that too long a period of practically unbroken rule has allowed corrupt interests to get hold of the machinery of the Republican party, as is so notably the case in the Ohio State Treasurership, Board of Public Works, and other offices; the other, that the Democratic party has risen to its opportunity as never before in the high character of the candidates whom it has nominated. Judge Baldwin, of Yale University, in Connecticut; President Woodrow Wilson, of Princeton, in New Jersey; John A. Dix, in New York; Congressman Foss, in Massachusetts, and Judson Harmon in Ohio. We challenge the political records of the past forty years for a list of candidates for the governorship of these five important states, taken from either party or both parties combined, equal in character, ability and national renown to these five Democratic candidates whose names are before the people of their respective states in the election of next Tuesday.

There is not one of the five against whom any honest and well read Republican can hear a charge of weakness, inefficiency or corruption and not know in his heart that it is mere campaign slander. Here in Ohio, especially, where Judson Harmon is in the second year of an administration noted all over the country for its vigor and efficiency in rooting out old abuses and putting the affairs of state on an honest business basis, it is nonsense to attempt to convince fair minded Republicans that the campaign charges against him have any basis of truth whatever. In fact the Republican management itself has at the eleventh hour recognized the utter futility of Harding's course and has dragged almost the whole of Taft's cabinet into the state to try to make the voters believe that the issues are not local at all, but that the only real question at stake is the presidential election of 1912! When, pray, have the voters of Ohio a right to settle their state affairs if not in the off year, between presidential elections? If President Taft were thoroughly in sympathy with the masses of intelligent Ohio Republicans on the tariff question, this appeal to vote for Harding in order to stand by the President would have more effect, but both Harding and Taft stand for the Payne-Aldrich tariff, which is as odious to thousands of Ohio Republicans as it is to the Democrats. In addition to this, a vote to endorse Taft is a vote to endorse Ballinger, whom nine-tenths of honest Republicans all over the land believe to have betrayed the interests of the people. No, this attempt to bolster up a sinking campaign by a screaming appeal to national party prejudice will not help Harding out of the mire into which he has plunged. The people of Ohio will vote as Ohioans in the interest of Ohio. They know that Harmon has already revealed enormous corruption, that he has one grafter already in the penitentiary, that evidence secured by him has resulted in the return of about sixty indictments soon to come to trial, and that he has at last pried open a door into the rottenness long believed to exist in the department of Public Works. They are going to give him a new lease of power and see this thing through to the bottom. And for that purpose they will give him an Attorney General who will not try

Early Days With the New Teacher.

When Judson Harmon was a young man he helped to work his way through college by teaching school. This early experience enabled him when he became governor to point out some lessons from the text book of HONEST GOVERNMENT showing that the rules have not been strictly followed in the past. Governor Harmon's teaching along that line has been of vast importance to the people of Ohio; but the above cartoon shows that he has an unwilling class before him consisting of several candidates on the g. o. p. state ticket whose "class leader" is trying to "play hooky." If the voters of Ohio will continue their school-master in statecraft and honest government in the governor's office two years longer even the recalcitrant pupils shown in the above cartoon may learn some valuable lessons.

to belittle his work, but who will aid his efforts to put the accounting system of the state into a shape which will prevent graft rather than invite it, they will retain a State Treasurer who has already done this for that department, and they will place upon the Supreme Bench two new Judges who do not owe their nominations to George B. Cox.

Judge Robbins Hunter.

Judge Robbins Hunter is a life-long resident of Newark. He is the son of the late Judge S. M. Hunter and was born and brought up in this city. Everybody knows him to be a clean, able, educated young man. Several years ago he served acceptably as a Master Commissioner in an important Granville gas case and in the several weeks he has been probate judge of Licking county he has transacted the business of the office in a manner satisfactory to the parties concerned and the business he has transacted is a fair sample of the work of the office. In other words, he has proved himself well qualified for the position of probate judge.

To vote a straight ticket place your X under the Rooster.

DUNLAP AND COX.

Dairy and Food Commissioner Renick W. Dunlap, third term candidate for the same office, secured his first nomination by a deal with George B. Cox in which Cox was to name the inspectors for Cincinnati in return for Cox's support in the convention. Dunlap always runs thousands ahead in Cincinnati. Cox and his disreputable gang are immune from prosecution. November 8, 1910, is the day of reckoning, however, and the people, unprotected against food impurities, short weights and measures and scourged by high prices, are going to even up by repudiating Mr. Dunlap, just as his own party did in his own county at the May primaries, where HE LOST OUT BY MORE THAN FOUR TO ONE.

It is not expected, however, that this ratio will be maintained over the whole state, as his methods are not so well known abroad as at home.

ALL LABORING MEN SHOULD KNOW

It develops that Governor Harmon went down in his own pocket and furnished $2,000 for the work of the employer's liability commission, which is getting up a law by which workmen who get hurt can get adequate damages without having to go into the courts and stand a chance of getting nothing.

The law creating this commission was enacted last winter, but no money was appropriated to cover the expense. A Republican state emergency board refused to allow the commission any money, and as it could not do business on nothing Governor Harmon advanced the money to keep it going himself. This looks as if he is a pretty good friend of organized labor. Every laboring man in Ohio is interested in the work of this commission.

If you don't vote a straight ticket be sure to place an X mark in the space to the left of every name for whom you wish to vote.

As a reward for faithful, honest and efficient public service, C. L. Riley ought to be re-elected by a big majority to the office of County Auditor. The office is of such great importance to the tax-payers of the county at this time that no man ought to hesitate or withhold his vote from him.

If you want to be on the winning side this year vote for Governor Harmon, and all the candidates on his ticket, and help to elect a legislature with a Democratic majority in both branches. Harmon has made good and he ought to have a full staff of state officers and a Democratic legislature to help him go on from good to better and best. To be on the winning side get on the right side. Governor Harmon stands at the head of the procession on the right side.

Will any Republican paper in the state point out one sentence from any speech of Warren G. Harding that even made an admission that George B. Cox has been guilty of any dishonesty or corruption?

That "square deal" which Harding is going to give to George B. Cox, after he is elected, means complete protection for the Cox graft.

Home Ownership
Ownership of a home is fundamental to good domestic economy. It makes of every man a king. It establishes him in a domain wherein he is more a monarch than he is the titled weakling to the throne or princeling that came to him. The knowledge of ownership instills a feeling of independence. It is an inspiration to thrift and economy. The home owner who has practiced reasonable industry and economy can snap his fingers at panics and sickness. He stands in no fear of the rent collector or dispossessor. He and his good helpmate are joint rulers in a little kingdom of their own, which can be made a foretaste of paradise. November 6th, 1910.

(Copyright, 1910, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)
The Last Supper, Matt. xxv:17-30.
Golden Text—This is my body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of me. Luke 22:19.

Verse 17—What was the feast of the passover, and what did it commemorate?

What purpose does the feast of the passover serve as evidence of Bible history?

What is the practical benefit of anniversaries, religious, national and personal?

Verse 18—Has Jesus the right to-day, as in that day, to invite himself and friends to any man's house? Why?

Was Jesus' "time," for his crucifixion, a necessary or a contingent event. I. e. was the event fixed by God or would he have preferred that the Jews had accepted, and not rejected Jesus?

Verse 19—What are the advantages of making proper preparation, in advance, for religious services, that is of the heart and mind, as well as for the place and the services themselves?

Verse 20—Which time is preferable for the most solemn and impressive service, the morning or the "even," and why?

Would it tend to spirituality, and cultivate a spirit of love and unity, if the children of God were to sit down and eat together, at their experience, or prayer meetings? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 21—Did Jesus know that Judas was going to betray him from passing events, or supernaturally? Give your reasons.

If human actions are contingent, and not necessary, how can God know in advance what they are going to be? Verses 22-25—Were the loyal disciples actually in doubt, as to whether they were going to betray Jesus, and, whether or not, what was their state of mind?

Are there some acts which we may be absolutely sure we will never commit, or should we always stand in doubt of ourselves? Give your reasons.

Verses 24-25—Could Judas have refrained from betraying Jesus, and have been loyal to him, had he chosen to do so? Give your reasons.

Verses 26-28—Did Jesus' blessing of the bread and the wine change its nature and if not, what effect did it have?

What was the precise thought Jesus meant to convey by the words, "this is my body," and "this is my blood?"

What reasons are there to believe that Jesus meant this sacrament of the Lord's supper, to be kept up perpetually?

What blessed purposes are served by keeping up the Lord's supper? Verses 29-30—Will there be eating and drinking in heaven and whether or not, what did Jesus mean by these words?

ENDS STOMACH DISTRESS AND INDIGESTION

Why not get some now—this moment—and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapiesin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas, or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take gas from stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapiesin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good. Absolute relief from all stomach misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapiesin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapiesin because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can get relief in five minutes.

CONVICT

DISCHARGED FROM SING SING PRISON ATTEMPTS TO END HIS LIFE.

Said "Society" Refused to Give Him Employment After Sending Him to the Penitentiary.

New York, Nov. 5.—On a bed in Bellevue hospital, Louis Goldstein, a discharged convict who tried to kill himself because "society" would not receive him save as an outcast, has recovered sufficiently today to take a rozier view of life. He will try to get well and fight to re-establish himself.

Goldstein drank poison on an elevated train last night. In his hand he clutched a discharge paper, showing that he had served a sentence in Sing Sing, together with a long letter, in which he declared that "society" had sent him to prison for a crime of which he was guiltless. Then after his release, "society" refused to give him employment.

"I came to New York with a broken heart and friendless," said the letter. "It was impossible for me to find employment. Wherever I sought a position they knew of my past."

"I suppose all of you will say I did not deserve this misjudgment; but what good will that do me? None at all."

"This is a very bad world. The world is filled with beasts, and those who are not, will turn beasts. The stronger wins and the weaker loses. I belong to the weaker class."

THE RAWLINGS PIANO

By buying it you save all agents profits and get right from the manufacturer. Agents will condemn it and tell you things which are false in order to gain their own points. Have a mind of your own and go to A. L. Rawlings and get your piano and you cannot help but be suited. If you treat him right you will get the best of treatment in return.

DON'T MISS THIS AS IT IS THE BEST OPPORTUNITY YOU EVER HAD TO HAVE A MANUFACTURER AS A RESIDENT OF YOUR OWN TOWN.

It is a fact you owe to your own home to deal with your own merchants who do all they can to build up our city, but if you continue to buy goods from people who are only here for a time you cannot expect your city to grow, but you are helping other cities that don't give you one cent. dyl1-1,3,5. wyl1-3.

KING MANUEL

PLAINLY SHOWS HIS GRIEF FOR THE LOSS OF HIS THRONE.

Youthful Exile Has Lost in Weight and Fears His Estates Will Be Confiscated.

London, Nov. 5.—Severed members of English royalty who returned today from a visit at Woodnorton, where Manuel, the banished king of Portugal, is the guest of his uncle, the Duc d'Orleans, declared that Manuel plainly showed his grief over the loss of his throne.

The boyish smile and abounding good nature exhibited by Manuel on his visit to England several months before the Portuguese revolution were no longer in evidence. The youthful exile lost 20 pounds at least since the upset in Lisbon. He wanders about his uncle's estate as disconsolately as any hungry exile of lesser rank in the foreign quarter of Soho.

That the ex-king will receive an income of $100,000 yearly from his estates in Portugal, now seems most improbable. It is even likely that the estates will not be turned over to him at all, but will be confiscated in partial settlement of the debts of his family to the Portuguese people. These debts are many times the value of Manuel's estates.

When Manuel was exiled, it was reported that he was only too glad to lay down his kingship and wanted to live a life free from the worry and dangers that his title brought him. Those who have seen him, however, at Wood Norton, say the blood of kings runs deep in his veins and that he is suffering keenly from his overthrow.

FREE LECTURE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Newark, Ohio.

Cordially invites you and your friends to attend a lecture on Christian Science by Frank H. Leonard of Brooklyn, New York.

A member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts.

Monday evening, November Seventh. Nineteen hundred and ten at eight o'clock.

High School Auditorium. Admission free.

The time has come when the public and the Christian public in particular, should give Christian Science a kindly hearing. It is the faith of a million of people and its rapid and quiet growth is phenomenal in religious history. It has adapted the philosophy of religion to the practicality of humanity. It advocates and stands for higher life, personal purity and civic righteousness.

Catarrh of the Stomach a Prevalent Disease Difficult to Relieve.

A PROMPT AND EFFICIENT REMEDY.

Mr. E. W. Jackson, 315 Weaver Block, Greenville, Ohio, says: "While I was superintendent of construction of J. F. Bender and Bros. Co., of Hamilton, Ohio, I became entirely unfit for business with catarrh of the stomach."

"A friend called my attention to a remedy for this condition. I began to improve at once. I was soon able to return to my former profession."

"It would require many pages to describe the condition I was in and the relief I have obtained."

Here is another case. Officer George Y. Stout, 724 North Broadway, Baltimore, Md., says: "I suffered very much with catarrh of the stomach and nervous indigestion. I lost fifty pounds in four months."

"A friend called my attention to a remedy, which I used, and gradually got well. I have gained half my lost weight back again."

Chronic Stomach Trouble.
Mr. Robert J. Gillespie, 635 South Main St., Los Angeles, Cal., secretary of Father's International Union, was also suffering from catarrh of the stomach a long time. He grew thinner and paler, lost all ambition and appetite. Sick at the stomach, indigestion continually.

A friend also called his attention to a remedy, which brought about a decided improvement. After continuing the use of the remedy for a month, he considers himself permanently relieved.

Now, once more, Mr. Christian Hoffman, Slaton, Pa., says he suffered for many years with catarrh of the stomach. It produced a miserable cough, day and night. He tried doctors and many remedies. At last his attention was called to a remedy, the same remedy that relieved the others which have been entirely rid of his stomach difficulty.

Peruna Brought Back Health.
What was the remedy that has wrought this remarkable relief? So far, the remedy has not been mentioned.

If any one doubts the correctness of these statements it is very easy to verify them by writing to the people whose names have been given, enclosing a stamp for reply.

The remedy is within the reach of every one. It is simply the good, old standard reliable remedy known as Peruna.

If the truth were known, the probabilities are that Peruna has relieved as many cases of catarrh of the stomach as any other popular remedy in existence. We have a great many unsolicited testimonials from all parts of the United States, declaring in strong and enthusiastic terms that Peruna has entirely relieved them of catarrh of the stomach, that they were wretched and miserable beyond words, but Peruna has restored them to health, vigor and happiness.

These are the facts. Now, if you have stomach difficulty, it is up to you to act upon them or ignore them, as you please.

Symptoms of Stomach Catarrh.
"The affection may result from errors in diet, or the use of alcohol. The excessive use of tobacco, especially when the juice or the leaves are swallowed, is likely to cause it."

"Highly seasoned or coarse, irritating foods, sometimes induce the disease. As chronic gastritis (catarrh of the stomach) is essentially a secondary affection, one of the primary causes is an unhealthy state of the mouth, nose or throat, such as had teeth or catarrh of the nose (ozena)."

"The patients are usually poorly nourished, pale, sallow, thin, fatigued easily induced, muscles flabby. Loss of appetite or capricious appetite."

"The tongue is usually coated brownish gray. Cankered mouth is a common occurrence."

"Pain is not common. When present it is usually dull, and is aggravated by food, especially when this is of an irritating character."

"Vomiting may occur in the morning. Also after meals. Sickness to the stomach frequent and persistent."

"Food produces dull headache, and a feeling of general nervous distress. Constipation usually quite marked."

These symptoms, given by Gould and Pyle, coincide exactly with the frequent descriptions Dr. Hartman is receiving from patients all over the United States.

If you have any of these symptoms get a bottle of Peruna. Take doses before each meal. See if your stomach does not immediately feel better, your appetite improve, your digestion as once resume business.

People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna tablets.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Mischievous Old Witch

“All witches are not bad, my dears,” said daddy in beginning the bedtime story. “Indeed, some are very kind and good, while others are just mischievous. I am going to tell you about a witch who dearly loved to play tricks on people. She lived in a dark forest, but when it came 12 o'clock at night she would jump on her broomstick and fly to a village, where she did all sorts of queer things.”

“Once she changed a cow into a poodle dog, and when the owner came in the morning to feed his bossy he was so surprised to see only a doggie there that he fell into a puddle of water. How the witch did laugh at that! Another time she changed a cat into a bottle of ink, and the bottle mewed just like a kitten. Then, again, she changed a horse into an elephant, and when the man went out to hitch up for a drive and found an elephant in his barn he ran screaming through the village.”

“Now, in this village, children, there lived two young girls named Gertrude and Alice. Gertrude was very, very beautiful. She had lovely blue eyes, long curly hair, a sweet face and small hands and feet. People, though, talked so much about her beauty that she finally became vain and silly and nobody liked her. Alice, on the other hand, was not a bit pretty. Her eyes were very small, her hands and feet very large, and her nose turned up dreadfully. But she was always so nice and kind that every one liked her.”

“One dark night the old witch came to the village and flew right into the room where Alice and Gertrude were sleeping. She waved her broomstick over them, muttered something and finally flew back home, but not before she had changed a dog into a peanut, which a boy found and ate the next day. He barked like a dog for months afterward and had to take lots of medicine before he got better.”

“Well, next morning what a change there was in the looks of the two girls! Alice now was the beautiful one, while Gertrude was so homely that when she looked in the glass it cracked all to pieces. And, besides, right on the end of her nose was a big pickle. My, but how funny she did look, and how the people laughed to see a girl with a pickle growing on the end of her nose! Of course she felt very bad and cried all the time. She would not leave the house even to go to a party, but lay in bed all the time with the clothes over her head so that nobody could see her face.”

“After a time the witch felt very sorry for her, and one night she flew back and made her more beautiful than ever. After that Gertrude was never vain, and the two pretty sisters lived happily and had lots of friends.”

Quarter-Century Ago

(From Advocate Nov. 5, 1885.)

A large eagle measuring over seven feet from tip to tip of wings, was shot near the Licking reservoir this morning.

The B. and O. railroad company has been compelled to open a new yard between Third and Fourth streets, on account of the heavy freight traffic.

Hon. William Bell has returned from a visit in Utica. He and his wife are about to go to New Mexico to spend the winter with their daughter. Zanesville has a new saloon, which is gotten up in regular metropolitan style.

Marriage licenses have been issued to John Mofford and Nellie E. Green and Adam M. Weiss and Susie B. Fountain.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

Nov. 5.

An appeal on behalf of “30,000 starving Americans” in Kansas issued from Boston. (Census of 1880 gave 109,401 population of the territory.)

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

Conference of the powers on the Balkan situation opened at Constantinople.

New Coat of Paint.

The Newark Sanitarium in West Main street is being greatly improved on the exterior by a fresh coat of paint.

Dance.

Mr. John Dodson will give a dance at Jacksontown hall Thursday, Nov. 10. Music by Johnson orchestra. Everybody cordially invited. 5d3x

Prohibitionists, Socialists and Anti-Saloon Votes.

Can all be cast consistently for Dr. H. R. Emery for representative. 4d2t

Will Build Home.

Mrs. Amanda C. Sperry has taken out a permit for the erection of a 3-room frame house at 20 South Pine street. The new home will cost $1000.

Start Work Monday.

White & Webb, who were awarded the contract for the pipe laying in the water works extension, will begin their work Monday if the weather permits.

B. & O. Callers Dance.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad callers are making arrangements for their fourteenth annual ball, which will be given at the A. I. U. hall on the evening of Nov. 22. Marsh's orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music for the occasion.

Congress Meeting.

There will be a congress meeting of the United Young Peoples' Societies of Newark on Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church. All congressmen, pastors and presidents are urged to be present.

Ministers' Association.

The regular meeting of the Ministers' Association will be held at the Fifth Street Baptist church Monday, Nov. 7, at 10 a. m. Rev. Chas. Laughlin, the new pastor of the East Main Street M. E. church, will speak on “Personal and Pastoral Evangelism.”

A Pastor on Trial.

At the Fifth Street Baptist church at 8 o'clock, there will be a review and discussion of the pastor's preaching and teaching, to discover what he has ever said, in any of his sermons or talks, that could be helpful to the Christian life. This meeting will be open to everyone.

Slight Improvement in Condition.

The friends in this city of Mrs. Daniel Altschul will be interested to learn there is a slight improvement in her condition, although she is still confined to her bed. Mrs. Altschul went to Cincinnati some time ago to visit her sister, Mrs. Lowenstein and shortly after her arrival she was taken ill and has been bedfast since.

Leg Amputated.

Mrs. Johnson of Newark, mother of Mrs. F. V. Owen of Belmont avenue, underwent a serious operation at the Owen home Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Johnson has been suffering from gangrene in one of her legs and on Thursday afternoon the leg was amputated at the knee. Mrs. Johnson recovered nicely and was feeling quite well on Friday. — Mt. Vernon Republican-News.

Came After Prisoner.

Deputy Sheriff Pat Burns of Kalamazoo, Mich., arrived in Newark early this morning to return Fred Manning to that city. He expressed himself as well pleased with the work of the police in capturing the man who was wanted on the charge of attempted murder. Manning was arrested Thursday night by Captain Swank and Patrolmen Hinger and Swinehart in a West Newark pool room. Captain Swank will receive a reward of $50 for capturing Manning.

Early Morning Fire.

The Post, 111 Railroad street, was badly damaged by fire at an early hour this morning and it was only by the hardest kind of work that the building was saved by the firemen. The alarm was turned in at 1:50 and both trucks from the Central department responded. A summer kitchen was badly burned and the kitchen in the house was also attacked by the fire and burned before the blaze could be checked. It is not known how the fire started. The loss is about $400.

SEAVEY'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

Have you dyspepsia? If you have perhaps you want to get rid of it. You can by taking SEAVEY'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS. We do not print any pictures of before and after taking. You get them by standing before the looking glass. If you don't believe this, try the tablets and you will. We have proved that SEAVEY'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS will cure dyspepsia over and over again. We are ready to demonstrate it in your case, and we will tell you how. Go to the store of Erman & Son and get a package. Take it according to directions. If it cures you, step in and tell the druggist so. If it doesn't step in just the same, and tell him that, and he will hand you right back the ducats you paid him. Do you suppose this offer would be made if we had any doubts about what the tablets will do for you? Do you see any way that you can lose any money out of it? But if you really enjoy dyspepsia, and want to retain it permanently, let SEAVEY'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS alone, for the tablets won't let dyspepsia alone.

FIT THE GROCER.

Wife Made the Suggestion.

A grocer has excellent opportunity to know the effects of special foods on his customers. A Cleveland grocer has a long list of customers that have been helped in health by leaving off coffee and using Postum.

He says, regarding his own experience: “Two years ago I had been drinking coffee and must say that I was almost wrecked in my nerves. “Particularly in the morning I was so irritable and upset that I could hardly eat until coffee was served, and then I had no appetite for breakfast and did not feel like attending to my store duties.”

“One day my wife suggested that inasmuch as I was selling so much Postum there must be some merit in it, and suggested that we try it. I took home a package and she prepared it according to directions. The result was a very happy one.”

“My nervousness gradually disappeared and today I am all right. I would advise everyone affected in this way with nervousness or stomach troubles, to leave off coffee and use Postum.”

“There's a Reason.” Read “The Road to Wellville,” in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one at ears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

New Penny Coaches.

The Pennsylvania railroad announces that the first lot of all-steel suburban coaches ordered by it have been delivered by the builder and that the cars have been sent to New York, where they will be used out of the Manhattan terminal.

This new type of passenger coach is 54 feet long and seats 82 people. By the employment of special designs, the weight of the car has been lessened appreciably, in comparison with the old-style wooden coach, the latter carrying 1510 pounds of dead weight for each passenger, while the all-steel coach carries but 1078 lbs.

GRAFTING

In the Ohio Offices

OF SECRETARY OF STATE

STATE RAILROAD COM'RS

And State Supervisor of Public Printing

As Shown in Indictments in Franklin County.

Below is given a synopsis of 57 indictments, returned by the grand jury of Franklin county during the spring term of 1910, affecting the office of secretary of state during the time that office was held by L. C. Laylin, the office of railroad commissioner during the time that office was held by James C. Morris, and the office of supervisor of public printing during the time that office was held by Mark Slater, charging, in some instances, that the defendants collected money on bills wholly false and fraudulent, in others the payment of bribes and in still others the receipt of bribes, the amounts involved being in the aggregate $55,208.14.

The list shows that there are now pending against George E. Wood, the purchasing clerk of the secretary of state, 30 indictments. Mr. Wood was appointed by L. C. Laylin, the chairman of the Republican state executive committee. The list also shows that there are 14 indictments pending against Mark Slater, a Republican supervisor of public printing. It shows that there are pending against Harry King, purchasing clerk in the office of the state railroad commissioner, six indictments. King was appointed by James C. Morris, railroad commissioner, who was reappointed by Governor Harris contrary to law, as the supreme court has since decided. All of these indictments relate to the purchase of state supplies. The information on which these prosecutions are based was furnished by Governor Harmon, with instructions to indict and prosecute every man shown by the evidence to be guilty of any crime in connection with the performance of his public duties. Others were indicted for complicity in their offenses. The indictments were found last spring. One of the defendants, Mark Slater, is now serving a term in the penitentiary. Early last spring Governor Harmon issued papers to secure the extradition of another of the defendants, D. W. Dinsmore, from the city of Chicago. To avoid coming to Ohio to face the charges against him, Dinsmore carried his case up to the supreme court of the United States, the federal court in Chicago having decided in favor of the state of Ohio, which the supreme court sustained.

Besides the one case against Slater which has already been tried and the case against Dinsmore, there are 55 cases which have not been tried, although they have been pending on the docket of the court of common pleas of Franklin county, some of them nearly eight months and others for nearly six months. These prosecutions are under the control of the prosecuting attorney, a Republican.

The governor has done everything within his power by furnishing the evidence and insisting on vigorous prosecutions, and with reference to these prosecutions alone, not to mention the four suits on ex-state treasurers' bonds amounting to nearly $470,000, the collection of nearly $6,000 for the use of money deposited in his own bank by the ex-state auditor, W. D. Gullbert, and the investigation of other state departments, Governor Harmon has done more to expose and prosecute grafters than all other governors of Ohio during the last 25 years. It will be interesting, therefore, to scan the following list of criminal prosecutions for grafting, instituted by Governor Harmon in Franklin county, as examples of what Candidate Harding sneers at as "MAGNIFIED MISDEMEANORS".

DATE SET FOR CROW SUPPER

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—The crow supper, a political event of the state, will be held here Nov. 17. After each state election the dinner, the result of a wager between the two parties of the county, has been given, the losers paying therefor. Notables from both parties respond to toasts, and good-fellowship prevails.

The women, not to be outdone by their lords, will give a like banquet each year, on the same evening on which the men celebrate. This year it will be held at Mrs. N. E. Matthews' home. The literary lights and brilliant wits of the state will be the speakers. A fine program is in preparation.

Strong Healthy Women

If a woman is strong and healthy in a womanly way, motherhood means to her but little suffering. The trouble lies in the fact that the many women suffer from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism and are unduly for motherhood. This can be remedied.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Cures the weaknesses and disorders of women. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned in motherhood, making them healthy, strong, vigorous, virile and elastic.

"Favorite Prescription" banishes the indispositions of the period of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. It quickens and vitalizes the feminine organs, and insures a healthy and robust baby. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits.

It makes Weak Women Strong. It makes Sick Women Well. Honest druggists do not offer substitutes, and urge them upon you as "just as good." Accept no secret nostrum in place of this non-secret remedy. It contains not a drop of alcohol and not a grain of habit-forming or injurious drug. Is a pure glyceric extract of healing, native American roots.

ROLL OF GRAFT

Governor Harmon Has Made Good---Will You Stand by Him When You Go to the Polls Next Tuesday?

Let us call the roll on REAL GRAFT, officially revealed by investigating committees or by indictments or other legal proceedings involving Republican officials, no part of which is based on disputed expense accounts, and all of which relates to the manipulation of public moneys or other abuses of public trust:

T. R. French, (Rep.), treasurer of Hamilton county, $59,450, interest on private deposits of public funds; paid back; investigation stopped by the courts.

John H. Gibson, (Rep.), treasurer of Hamilton county, $97,108.48, interest on private deposits of public funds; paid back; investigation stopped by the courts.

Rud K. Hynicka, (Rep.), treasurer of Hamilton county, $58,440.28, interest on private deposits of public funds; paid back; investigation stopped by the courts.

Mark Slater, (Rep.), state public printer, 14 indictments, alone and with others, charging embezzlement, false vouchers, etc., aggregating $47,394; serving sentence of four years in penitentiary on one indictment, other indictments pending.

J. E. Breckford, former partner of Slater, included with Slater in four indictments; given immunity for turning state's evidence.

D. W. Dinsmore, included with Slater in six indictments; resisted extradition in federal court at Chicago and supreme court of the United States, both courts deciding against him.

George E. Woods, (Rep.), purchasing clerk for Secretary of State Laylin, nine indictments alone charging bribery for amounts aggregating $1252.32, and 11 indictments with George Ruggles and John T. Paine charging the receipt of payment on false bills aggregating $4,985.70.

Harry E. King, (Rep.), purchasing clerk in the office of state railroad commissioner, six indictments alleging bribery for amounts aggregating $255.

Estate and bondsmen of W. S. McKimmon, (Rep.), state treasurer, suits pending in court for $116,785 interest on deposits of state funds.

I. B. Cameron and bondsmen, (Rep.), state treasurer, suits pending in court for $211,720, interest on deposits of state funds.

W. D. Guilbert, (Rep.), former state auditor, $5,674; paid back; for interest on state funds carried in the bank of which he is president, and claim for $31,809 on state funds carried in another bank, still pending.

L. C. Laylin, chairman of the State Republican campaign committee, $18,124 interest on public funds carried in banks by him as secretary of state, (see report of Howe investigating committee), for which Attorney General Denman has failed to bring suit.

C. A. Thompson, (Rep.), secretary of state, $2,274, interest on state funds carried in bank, (see report of Howe investigating committee), for which Attorney General Denman has failed to bring suit.

W. S. Rogers, (Rep.), former state fire marshal, $1100 personal expenses, for which Attorney General Denman has failed to bring suit.

Hy Davis, (Rep.), former state fire marshal, $959.55 personal expenses, for which Attorney General Denman has failed to bring suit.

Canal Ring, (Rep.)—Well, that is what Governor Harmon is trying to get at and what the canal ring is trying hard to keep him from getting at.

This array of facts shows that Governor Harmon has MADE GOOD. Will you stand by him when you go to the polls to vote next Tuesday?

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Another very successful Democratic meeting was held by the Licking Democratic club at the headquarters on West Main street on Friday night. It was one of the best attended meetings that have been held by the club during the campaign, and the utmost enthusiasm prevailed. Indeed such enthusiasm as is being manifested by Democrats this fall has rarely been equaled, and all are most sanguine of Democratic victory.

The meeting Friday night was presided over by Squire George W. Horton, who made a rattling introductory Democratic speech, confining himself to a general discussion of the issues of the campaign.

Speeches were also made by Mr. Frank Mercer, Attorney Roderick Jones, W. D. Fulton and Ben Baiser. Mr. Mercer confined his talk to a short discussion of the issues of the campaign and urged every Democrat to vote for the candidates of his party.

Roderick Jones delivered one of his characteristic, forceful, and convincing addresses, dealing principally with the graft question.

Hon. W. D. Fulton, candidate for representative, delivered a rattling good talk on the tariff question, which was one of the best expositions of the subject heard in Newark in many a day.

One of the best addresses of the evening was that delivered by Ben Baiser. He talked principally on the labor question, showing that the Democratic party was the friend of labor, whereas the Republican party had been tried and had been found wanting.

FIRE SALE NEXT MONDAY AT STEPHAN'S. 2711

ADVOCATE BOYS BLOW WHISTLES ALONG ROUTES

Each Advocate carrier in the city was provided Friday night with a whistle to be used while delivering his papers. In all probability such a statement is superfluous as there is no doubt that the whistles were used diligently last night.

A careful investigation of complaints from subscribers has revealed the fact that a large percent of the papers reported not delivered, have been picked up by passersby. It is almost impossible to apprehend these thieves as they generally do their work after dark in the winter months and the subscribers and the carriers suffer.

The whistles were furnished the carriers with a view of eliminating as much of this complaint as possible. The carriers were instructed to blow the whistle as each paper was delivered and they are expected to comply with these instructions.

Subscribers are requested to watch for the carrier—his approach will be heralded by the whistle which can be heard from within the house while the boy is yet some distance away.

In this way the subscriber is notified of the delivery of his paper and it can be secured before some passerby has picked it up or the wind has carried it away.

If the whistle isn't used on your route, kindly notify the office and thus help the Advocate to give its subscribers the best possible service.

ROBERT S. SHIELDS FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

Nature and training have combined to equip Judge Robert S. Shields for judicial work. Possessed of rare qualities of heart that find constant expression in kindly and courteous consideration of others, he is first of all a fine conscientious gentleman. A vigorous constitution, perfect health, and a capacity for sustained and close application, qualify him for the arduous and exacting labors of the bench. He will have an active practice in the prime of his physical and mental vigor, and will bring to the circuit bench fixed habits of industry and the mature judgment of the successful practitioner.

Professional standing is relative. A lawyer's position at the bar is measured by the quality of his competitors.

Judge Shields has been connected with a large part of the important litigation in Stark county for the last twenty-five years. Associated now for many years with the Hon. Atlee Pomerene, the firm of Shields and Pomerene is generally recognized as one of the strongest legal firms of the state.

Judge Shields has been prosecuting attorney, United States district attorney and judge of the circuit court. In these positions and as a member of the board of education, president of the city council, and mayor of the city of Canton, he has given efficient service to the public.

The Democratic ticket this year will occupy second place on the ballot. The Republican ticket is in the third column.

Robbins Hunter is receiving assurances of support for Probate Judge from all parts of the county. Many Republicans who desire a faithful and honest man in the Probate office are proffering him their support. They are doing so voluntarily because of the entire confidence that they have in his integrity as well as his qualifications.

Vote for Joseph H. Brownfield, S. J. Tatham and G. T. Tavener for County Commissioners. These gentlemen have made a splendid board of commissioners for one term and have shown that they are in the office for the purpose of looking after the best interests of the entire people of the county. They have made it a rule to place all matters coming before them on a strict business basis, save every cent possible and give the people a good administration.

W. D. FULTON.

The American-Tribune's artillery loaded with personal abuse has been aimed principally at W. D. Fulton during this campaign, but every time the Tribune has fired a broadside Mr. Fulton's strength has gained.

As a member of the city council and ex-president of that body of law-makers Mr. Fulton has been found on the people's side of every important question. He has insisted upon a "square deal" for Newark and for the common people. He is a lawyer of experience, a business man and a farmer. As an attorney he is qualified to deal with important issues of the coming session of the legislature, as a business man he knows what is for the interest of his constituency, and as the owner of a large farm he knows and recognizes the farmer's needs. Mr. Fulton as a counsellor has "made good." As a Legislator he will "make good." He will be the people's representative. And Mr. Fulton will not vote for Dick for United States Senator.

Phil B. Smythe is recognized by the attorneys and business men as a leading lawyer of Newark. He has been a real prosecutor. He has enforced the law without fear or favor. He has done his duty in every instance. This record made by Mr. Smythe speaks for itself. He should be and will be re-elected Tuesday, Nov. 8.

In England one person in every hundred is unable to read and write. In France, two in every hundred.

WAIT! IT'S MADE WITH MILK WATCH!

All three of the Republican legislative candidates will vote to return Charles Dick to the United States Senate if they are elected. All three of the Democratic candidates for the legislature will vote against Dick. By voting for Miller, Haas and Fulton you really cast three ballots against Charles Dick, the man who was one of Senator Aldrich's right hand men in framing the tariff bill of 1910, and who runs the state bureau of personal abuse of Democrats.

Dr. W. E. Wiviarch is in every way qualified to serve as county coroner. He will conduct the office honestly and efficiently.

COLLEGE YELLS IN EVIDENCE AT INTERURBAN DEPOT

Several hundred Ohio State University students, detained from an Ohio Electric car in front of the interurban station this morning and made the street ring with their college yells. The entire repertoire of yells, including the famous "zip, zap, zow" yell was put on for the edification of the natives, many of whom wondered what wild west show was booked for Newark today.

The students were in charge of O. S. U. geological instructors and each was provided with a leather bag containing implements or the study of geology. They hiked to the hills south-east of the city where they cracked stone until afternoon, returning to Columbus this afternoon at 3:15.

THE RAWLINGS PIANO

The following is from Mrs. F. P. Householder the wife of Prof. Householder of Utica, who recently accepted a position as principal of the high school at Youngstown, O.:
"The piano reached us in fine condition; not a mar on it. I am very proud of my Rawlings piano, and it has already been paid several high compliments, one being by our pastor. The tone, touch, finish and style are beautiful. I am perfectly suited. I thank you very much for your assistance in helping Mr. Householder to select, and know I could not have been better suited had I been present myself."

HAPPY ENDING OF A ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE

Charles Clay Marries Faithful Nurse Who Attended Him at Newark Sanitarium.

Count one for Dan Cupid. That little love god, who oftimes works in a peculiar manner, scored again yesterday, when Charles Clay and Mrs. Daisy Black were married. There is a real love match and it all came about through a cutting air-fray that took Clay to the Sanitarium. During the summer Clay went into Joe Ami's little grocery one afternoon and after an altercation the men came to blows.

Grabbing up a big cheese knife Ami rushed at Clay and stabbed him in the abdomen, inflicting a horrible wound. Clay was rushed to the Sanitarium and for weeks he lay in that hospital and was cared for by Mrs. Black, a nurse of that institution.

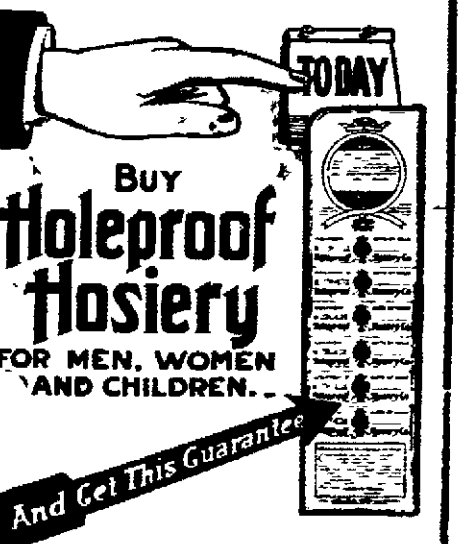

Clay possessed iron nerve and a splendid constitution and through a skillful operation performed by Dr. C. F. Legge, and tender nursing, he gradually recovered. He was a model patient, and Mrs. Black, a tender nurse and a vigorous three-cornered fight against death was waged, and the three were victorious.

Day after day the injured man lay in his bed and watched his nurse, who anticipated his every want, and gradually D. Cupid made his presence felt and the love between the nurse and the patient grew.

They weren't a bit superstitious and Friday they visited the court house and the license was secured. Last night they were married, and their little romance came to a happy end.

CAN YOU BELIEVE YOUR SENSES?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired if not utterly destroyed by Nasal Catarrh are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands who have used it? It is applied directly to the affected air passages and begins its healing work at once. Write for a booklet. All druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 100 Warren Street, New York, on receipt of 10 cents.
